NATURE NOTES

There are no Nature Notes this month. For the last six years almost without fail Brian Davis has produced for us an interesting article on local nature and wildlife, and finding something new to write about each month is becoming increasingly difficult. If anyone feels they could contribute a regular article on an interesting topic, say every other month to share the burden with Brian, please get in touch with Jenny Hyde either by phone (891454) or e-mail (address below). Maybe someone would like to contribute an article on farming, local history, or crafts...? We have many interesting activities going on in the village, such as building a narrow gauge railway or even keeping ducks and hens, so do please consider whether you could share your more interesting experiences! It only needs about 200 words.

49 CLUB WINNER

The lucky winner of the September draw was John Jolly.

C.H.C.T. CYCLE RIDE

Many thanks to everyone who helped in any way. The event took place in glorious weather (again!) on 11th September. Thanks in particular to all our sponsors who helped the Easton participants to raise £376. Half of this money comes back to the Fabric Fund of our Church and the rest goes towards the maintenance of other historic churches and buildings in Cambridgeshire.

FIVE PARISH ADVENT FAIR

The Five-Parish Advent Fair will be held on Saturday, 27th November in Ellington Church. Easton will be running a stall selling honey, pickles, jams etc. and Peter Gould will be very grateful for any contributions to this. Other stalls will include Cakes, Gifts & Presents, Crafts, "Everything @ £1", White Elephant & Treasures and a Bottle Stall. Offers of additional stalls, prizes or general help will be gratefully welcomed by Sue Young (tel: 453350).

EASTON BELLS

Advent leads us naturally on to Christmas and you may be wondering what to give to your friends and family this year. For anyone with even a passing interest in the village, a copy of Beth Davis' book "Easton Bells: A History of Easton Church" might make an unusual gift. Copies are available from Beth (01480-890625) priced at £5 each.

DATE FOR YOUR DIARY

The annual churchyard tidy-up is planned for Sunday 21st November with a fall-back date of 28th November should the weather be too wet. Please come, even if only for an hour or so, and bring your own garden tools etc. Refreshments will be provided.

The Annual Quiz will take place on Saturday, 5th February 2011 at Spaldwick School so please make sure you have this in your diary.

AND FINALLY...

Although we are having a village bonfire party at the end of October, some people may still wish to hold their own fireworks parties on Guy Fawkes' Night. Please remember that we have a number of thatched cottages in the conservation area and these are particularly vulnerable to the risk of fire. Official advice from the Fire Service is to avoid having BBQs, bonfires and fireworks close to such properties so please bear this in mind when setting off airborne fireworks such as rockets, which could land on the thatch.
